Explanation

The bill allows a swimming pool at Bennet Middle School in Manchester to be restored or renovated without having to meet all requirements of the state's public health and building codes. If this bill is not enacted, capital costs incurred by the town (should it proceed with the construction project) would be greatly increased over those incurred pursuant to the bill. The potential cost avoidance cannot be quantified at this time.

To the extent that enactment of the bill facilitates completion of the pool project, a minimal revenue gain and workload increase to the Department of Public Health (DPH) will result. Fees are payable to the state per the following schedule: Initial review of pool plans, $600; review of resubmitted (revised) pool plans, $200; initial inspection of pool, $100; re-inspection of pool, $75.

It is anticipated that Manchester's Health Department will be able to conduct ongoing pool inspections within local budgeted resources.
